BHOPAL: Congress has asked the EC to install jammers at the strong room where the EVM and VVPAT are kept. Party spokesperson JP Dhanopia submitted two letters to the Election Commission of India, here on Wednesday. The letter states that to secure the EVMs from any tampering it is demanded to install jammers. He said that he had learnt from Congress candidate from Bhind Devashish Jararia that that many Wi-Fi networks are active near the strong rooms.

Much-awaited CET to be held on June 23

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Common entrance test (CET) conducted by Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya for granting admission in its teaching departments will be held on June 23.

"The date of much-awaited test was finalised after consulting our software partner," said Prof VB Gupta, chairman of DAVV admission cell. He said online registrations for CET-2019 will begin on May 20 and continue till June 10.

This year, the university has made many changes in the CET. The university has re-grouped the courses, amended marking scheme, changed exam paper format, increased courses.

The test, which used to be conducted for nearly 2600 seats in a dozen departments, would now be held for filling 3088 seats in 21 teaching departments.

"Till last year, we used to fill seats in 48 courses through CET. But this year, number of courses has increased up to 62," Gupta stated. He said the university has brought many traditional courses under the CET including BSc and BCom courses.

Six new cities

CET is a national level exam, which is conducted in 27 cities. This year, the university has scrapped some centres and set up few others.

will be conducted this year include Chhindwara, Amritsar, Agra, Hyderabad, Udaipur, and Pune.

Major changes

The university has changed the format of question paper and marking scheme. Till last year, the exam paper had 75 questions each bearing three marks for correct answer and one minus mark for incorrect answer. This year, the paper will have 100 questions, each bearing four marks for correct answer and one minus mark for incorrect answer. Timing of the question paper has also been increased from one-and-a-half-hour to two hours.

Departments participating in CET

IIPS, commerce, journalism, economics, IMS, EMRC, law, computer science, electronics, physics, mathematics, statistics, pharmacy, life science, data sciences, social science, IET, biochemistry, biotechnology, chemical sciences and instrumentation.

BEd students who scored 26 marks declared pass

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Nearly 400 BEd second semester students, who had obtained 26 marks in exams and were declared failed, were declared pass through an order issued by vice chancellor Dr Narendra Dhakad.

"Though the minimum passing marks in 75 marks question paper are 27 but we mistakenly had printed 26 as passing marks in BEd exams papers. As the mistake was on our part, we accepted it and declared all those students as passed who got 26 marks," said Dhakad.

The decision was taken following recommendation by examination committee. A group of nearly 50 students had thronged the university on Tuesday claiming that they were wrongly declared failed in exams.

They claimed that the minimum score to clear in 75 marks paper was 26 but the university still failed all those who obtained the minimum passing marks. The university rubbished the claim stating that the passing score is 27 only to see students furnishing copies of question papers in which passing marks were mentioned as 26.

After that, the matter was forwarded to the examination committee which made recommendation in favour of aggrieved students.

The revised results would be announced in a day or two.

COMPLEX SURGERY

Woman recovering and stable

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

The condition of woman, who underwent a five-hour surgery on Tuesday to remove iron handle grip of a bike which was inserted by her husband about a year ago, is stable. According to doctors of MY Hospital, the woman is recovering and stable.

"She had gone through the ordeal for more than a year. We have removed the bike handle grip from her private part but it had damaged her urine bladder and small intestines," ICU in-charge Dr Sonia Moses told media persons on Wednesday.

She said that the patient's haemoglobin is low due to which they are transfusing blood to her.

The 30-year-old patient was admitted to MY Hospital three days ago after she reported her ordeal to women cops. Her husband had inserted bike handle's grip in her private part about a year ago after a dispute over his extra marital affair.

The woman was living with pain for over a year and she lodged a complaint with police a couple of days ago and the accused was arrested. Police on Wednesday presented the accused in the court and he was sent to the jail.

Industries' association felicitates Mahajan

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Lok Sabha Speaker Sumitra Mahajan on Wednesday said country witnessed unprecedented development in last five years.

Addressing a function organised to felicitate her on completing 30 years as MP, she said she will continue to fight for rights of industrialists. The function was organised by Association of Industries of MP (AIMP) at Pologround.

Delivering welcome address, AIMP president Alok Dave said industries benefited from her guidance in last 30 years.

While conducting the programme, Yogesh Mehta, secretary AIMP, said infrastructure development has taken place in industrial areas under the leadership of Mahajan. He said railway and air travel facilities have expanded and improved while Mahajan was MP. Former home minister Gulabchandra Kataria was also present on the occasion.

Agrawal hits out at Modi

SAYS DEMONETISATION PULLED BACK ECONOMY, GROWTH

OUR STAFF REPORTER
Indore

Targeting the BJP government at centre, president of Akhil Bharatiya Vyapar Mahasabha and Congress National spokesperson Sanjay Agrawal on Wednesday said that Modi's decision for demonetisation without any reason.

"He (Modiji) claimed that demonetisation was done to bring back the economy on track but it was already on track and was running at good pace. In fact, demonetisation had pulled back the economy and country's growth was decreased by 2 per cent," Agrawal said.

He said that the economy was growing at the rate of 7.6 per cent in 2014 but it dropped to 6.3 per cent in 2017-18.

"Indian economy had faced a loss of Rs 3 lakh crore due to demonetisation. Similarly, the 'Make in India' campaign was a mistake by the NDA government as the industrial growth too dropped to 4.45 per cent from 7 per cent between 2016 and 2018," Agrawal said.

The president of Vyapar Mahasabha also targeted the hike in fuel prices in NDA government and said that the 200 per cent excise duty on petrol and 400 per cent on diesel was increased in the last five years.

"Businesses were badly affected in the last five years and so as the export and import," he said. His association will raise the issues in the last phase of election as well to inform people about ill of the NDA Government's policies.

Nath told to coordinate with other parties to form govt at Centre

OUR STAFF REPORTER
BHOPAL

Chief minister Kamal Nath has been given responsibility to coordinate with the other political parties to form the government at the centre. The counting of LS poll is scheduled on May 23.

The AICC have given the big responsibility to the Madhya Pradesh CM to conduct talks with the other political parties who were the part of the earlier United Progressive Alliance (UPA). The UPA is a coalition of centre-left political parties formed after the 2004 general election. Presently 35 different political parties are the part of UPA along with the Congress. But in some state including Uttar Pradesh the Congress is contesting the election independently.

Bar association elections put off

Mhow: State Bar Council has on Wednesday cancelled the Mhow Bar Association election scheduled to be held on Thursday. The cancellation order came while the campaigning was in full swing.

Bharat Singh Thakur and Swadesh Pandey were contesting for the post of president and Thakur had written a letter to the state bar council asking not to hold the elections as per the council rules. Thakur stated photo identity cards are not issued to the members which are important for free and fair election. Taking note of this, council secretary Nalini Kant Vajpayee issued an order cancelling the elections.
