Irani, Gambhir, Prasad among 300 MPs elected for first time to Lok Sabha

AGENCIES New Delhi

The new Lok Sabha will have 300 MPs who have been elected for the first time to the Lower House, including cricketer-turned-politician Gautam Gambhir, Union ministers Ravi Shankar Prasad and Smriti Irani.

first time, according to think tank PRS Legislative Research. From the outgoing Lok Sabha, as many as 197 MPs have been re-elected, the PRS said. Irani emerged as a giant-killer after dethroning Congress chief Rahul Gandhi in Amethi by a margin of 55,120 votes.

Singh to register her maiden win in a general election. Gambhir, who was contesting from East Delhi, trounced Congress' Arvind Singh Lovely by a margin of over 3.91 lakh.

the seven seats, BJP's North West Delhi candidate Hans Raj Hans pipped AAP's Gagan Singh by a huge margin of over 5.55 lakh votes. But, it wasn't just BJP candidates who scored their first-ever win in the Lok Sabha election.

Madhya Pradesh's Chhindwara, Chief Minister Kamal Nath's son Nakul won his first Lok Sabha poll, defeating his BJP rival by 37,536 votes.

Rahul too may offer to quit as party chief

AGENCIES New Delhi

After a humiliating defeat in the Lok Sabha polls, top Congress leaders will deliberate on party losses at a meeting of the working committee slated on Saturday in which party chief Rahul Gandhi is likely to offer his resignation.

of my views. Congratulations to the winners for winning the confidence of the people," he said.

The top Congress leadership will deliberate on the reasons for the loss and assess them. The party suffered a loss for the second time in a row at the hands of the Narendra Modi led BJP. It bagged only 52 seats in this election.

In the wake of the Congress' dismal performance in the Lok Sabha polls in Uttar Pradesh, Raj Babbar sent his resignation to Rahul Gandhi after the party managed to win only the Rae Bareilly constituency of Sonia Gandhi out of 80 Lok Sabha seats in the state.

Babbar, who contested from Fatehpur Sikri, was defeated by a margin of 4,95,065 votes by BJP's Rajkumar Chahar. "The results are depressing for the Uttar Pradesh Congress. I find myself guilty of not discharging my responsibility in a proper manner," Babbar tweeted in Hindi.

continue working for the party. "I've taken the moral responsibility for the defeat. Somewhere there must have been some shortcoming on our part (the local unit) and hence I've offered to resign. I'm yet to get any response on this from the party leadership," he said.

Senior Congress leader H K Patil also resigned as the President of Karnataka Pradesh Congress Campaign Committee, taking responsibility for the party's disastrous defeat in the state in the Lok Sabha polls. In a letter to Congress President Rahul Gandhi, he said the results had "shocked" all Congressmen and the outcome in Karnataka was contrary to their expectations.

Stating that it was time for all of them to introspect, he said "As President of the Karnataka Pradesh Congress Campaign Committee I had the privilege to take the politician's message of my esteemed Party to the people. In view of the debacle, I feel it my moral duty to own-up the responsibility. Hence, with all humility I submit my resignation to the post."

Shiv Sena talks of 2 cabinet, one MoS position at Centre, Dy CM post in State

FP BUREAU / Mumbai

After the Bharatiya Janata Party, which won a majority in the 2019 Lok Sabha elections, the second-largest party in the National Democratic Alliance is, interestingly, the Shiv Sena. Of the LS 48 seats in the state, the Sena has won 18.

In 2014, the Sena, as the second largest ally, had only got one cabinet berth. However, this time, the number is expected to go up to three, as is being speculated in Sena circles. This will include a Sena minister of state.

The names being tossed around are those of Arvind Sawant, the second-time winner from South Mumbai, the Ratnagiri-Sindhudurg MP Vinayak Raut and the Yavatmal-Washim MP Bhavna Gawli.
